

STRATEGY DESCRIPTION

Coeli Norrsken is an absolute return fund employing a market-neutral strategy focused on U.S. publicly-traded companies undergoing ownership changes through secondary equity offerings and block deals. The fund specializes in analyzing institutional demand for transactions to identify high and low demand scenarios that serve as the basis for long and short trading positions. The fund's investment process is fundamentally systematic with discretionary overlays. The strategy of Coeli Norrsken involves building a portfolio of companies conducting secondary offerings through quantitative and discretionary decision making, as well as hedging market risk with a combination of index hedges.
